Scene 3

(Jackson sits surrounded with Christmas paper wrapping supplies around him)

Jackson: Hey guys, I'm just doing some Christmas wrapping tonight. It's merely hours until tonight's first pageant practice! I am so excited. I had a little time today so I wrote a little song about the anticipation of waiting for tonight's rehearsal. I haven't ever performed it before, but I think it's pretty good. Well, any way, I present to you Waiting, Waiting. Enjoy.

Jackson: (Singing) Waiting, Waiting, all the doo da day,
Waiting, Waiting, for the sun to go away,
'Cause when it does,
It means fun for us,

The pageant Cast and Crew,
The pageant practice is tonight,
And I can hardly wait,

(Jackson brushes away the paper surrounding him and stands up and does some dance moves as the song continues)

Jackson: (Singing) Waiting, Waiting, left in great suspense, Waiting, Waiting, wonder'n on the fence,
What'll it be,
For you and me,
It's gotta be something good,
It's gonna be very special,
Because it's Christmas time,

Jackson: If you think about it in a few hours we'll be on stage practicing.

Jackson: (Singing) Practicing, Practicing, for the play tonight,
Practicing, Practicing, without too much stage fright,
As we tell,
The story of,
How our Savior came to earth,
And then about His birth we sing,
As we practice then,

Jackson: So what do you guys think? Anyway, I can't wait for tonight. I'm sure this pageant will be the best ever! I mean maybe even the Wise Men will be riding elephants! Well those might be too expensive. But wait, we did rent a donkey that one year. Well, yeah and then Mary ended up with a broken rib. So maybe it's not the best idea. But anyway I can't wait! Hooray!
